

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Skyward Credit Union Announces Four Scholarship Winners

Wichita, Kan. – May 4th, 2017 – Kevin Wilmoth, President of Skyward Credit Union, announced the winners of the inaugural Aim Higher Scholarships for the 2017-2018 school year. Four undergraduates were selected by committee from an application pool of over seventy. Each winner will receive an award of $1,000 to support their education.

2017-2018 Aim Higher Scholarship Recipients

- Logan Albers of Wichita, Kan., studying Political Science & Economics at the University of Kansas
- Braeden Cooper of Derby, Kan., studying Athletic Training at Harding University
- Hanah Denning of Wichita, Kan., studying Biomedical Engineering at Wichita State University
- Drew Stover of Neodesha, Kan., studying Biology/Pre-Optometry at Kansas State University

The Aim Higher Scholarship was developed to encourage and support higher education for members of Skyward Credit Union. Applicants were anonymously selected based on grade point average, community involvement, and an essay on the value of financial education.

Skyward Credit Union has over $280 million in assets with locations in Wichita, Kansas and Independence, Kansas. Membership is limited to current and former employees of Textron Aviation Companies (Cessna, Beechcraft, and Hawker) and their families.

Contact:
Chris Ross
cross@txtav.com
Skyward Credit Union
Four Cessna Boulevard
Wichita, KS 67215
Phone: 316.517.1749
www.skywardcu.com

###